COMPANY OVERVIEW

Level 9 Protection Services is a newly established safety and security start-up company in South Africa. We are a 100% Black youth owned business, fully committed to meeting all legal and regulatory requirements. As a B-BBEE Level 1 company, we prioritize comprehensive security solutions, including protective services, fire management, investigations, and installation of electronic and physical security systems.

With a highly trained and reliable team, our primary goal is to ensure the continuous protection of valuable assets. Our management team brings decades of industry experience, offering a wealth of knowledge and expertise. At Level 9 Protection Services, we recognize the power of technology in combating crime and criminal activities. By integrating technology into our operations, we deliver reliable, efficient, and proactive security solutions, contributing to the overall reduction of crime.

VISION

To become the leading provider of safety and security solutions, ensuring the protection and peace of mind of our clients and their assets.

MISSION

To deliver exceptional safety and security services through a combination of advanced technology, highly skilled professionals, and a client-centric approach.

EQUIPMENTS

We utilize state-of-the-art security equipment and technology to ensure the highest level of protection for our clients. This includes advanced surveillance systems, access control systems, and communication devices.

CORPORATE & COMBAT UNIFORMS

In order to easily recognize our security personnel, they wear company uniforms that are professional and unique. These uniforms, which include both corporate and combat styles, reflect our dedication to maintaining a high level of professionalism. Our male and female officers wear corporate uniforms that consist of black blazers, white shirts, and either red ties or scarves. Additionally, both male and female officers wear combat uniforms that consist of black combat shirts and black trousers, along with black boots. The consistent branding across all uniforms helps to foster a sense of unity, professionalism, and pride among our officers.

EXPERTISE AND CERTIFICATION

Our team of security professionals possesses extensive expertise and industry certifications, ensuring they are well-equipped to handle any security challenge. We continuously invest in training and development to stay updated with the latest industry trends and best practices.

CLIENTELE

While we are a new start-up business, we aim to attract a diverse range of clients, including commercial buildings, residential complexes, event organizers, and high-profile individuals.

UNIQUE SELLING POINT

Our unique selling point lies in our ability to provide customized security solutions tailored to the specific needs of our clients. We prioritize proactive risk management and employ cutting-edge technology to deliver efficient and effective security services.

TECHNOLOGY AND INNOVATION

We embrace technology and innovation to enhance the effectiveness and efficiency of our security solutions. This includes the use of advanced surveillance systems, artificial intelligence, and data analytics to identify potential threats and improve response times.

LEVEL 9
